President's Message

Sue Stock

For those of you who missed them in 1992, we first met the Farndale crew in their spectacular attempt at "Macbeth". The audience and cast had so much fun that Heather MacTavish and Co. could not resist bringing them to light again. Our audience is usually looking for merriment at this time of year and I feel sure we can oblige once again.

Our first 1994 production will be "My Three Angels", directed by Alan Cronan. Set in the 19th century, it is a very funny play about the mischief created by 3 prisoners on Devil's Island. The auditions will be held on 1st February and we are hoping for a large contingent of newcomers.

Finally I would like to thank you, our audience for your continued enthusiastic support and our dedicated KUCOM members for their wonderful efforts throughout the year. I wish you a joyous Christmas and hope to see you again in 1994.

"The F.A.H.E.T.G.D.S. Murder Mystery"

"A MURDER MYSTERY"

ACT I The drawing room of Checkmate
Manor on a winter's evening

ACT II The next evening

Enclosed is a slip for the quiz.
More about that later!!!

Well here we are again, the Ladies of the Farndale Ladies Guild with another of our little productions, a Murder Mystery, with lots of twists and turns and many characters to test your powers of concentration.

But knowing the studious people that our kind of productions attract, I'm sure that it will be a piece of cake, or should I say fudge, ha! ha!. Yes, Mrs Dabney is here again this year with her homemade mouth watering fudge. I can assure you there will be plenty for all.

I say this in hope that there won't be a stampede to the plates, as last year we found half of it under the seats. Obviously it had fallen off the receptacles in the rush to taste.

Apart from Mrs Dabney's fudge, a superb supper will again be provided. Mrs Cavendish and her team have been cooking up a storm in the kitchen. As Mrs Cav. says, "An audience marches on its stomach".

So sit back, keep your eagle eyes peeled and enjoy our little play. Compliments of the season to all.

workers they are.*

Mr & Mrs Beasley for their slides.

Where next for the Beasleys? Spain we believe. Now that will be colourful - all those castanets.

Director Heather MacTavish

What can one say about a "Farndale" production, other than it has been a very happy experience directing and working with such a talented cast. The cast have thrown themselves (literally in some cases) into the production with great enthusiasm and energy.

The cast actually need doses of energy as there are 15 different roles to play for the 5 cast members. A tour de force for the ladies and our lone young man.

So now, join the Ladies Guild, as they set about to unravel the clues to the murders at jolly old Checkmate Manor.

Now sit back and enjoy.
