STAGE DOOR

It's a busy time in local Theatre, following this production of "The Glass Menagerie", the local groups are presenting a variety of productions. The Comedy Players are in rehearsal for Hiedi, a play written by Ken Kennett, which is being produced by Lyn Denny. It is scheduled for production on the 4th, 11th and 18th December in the Warralong Studio.

Father Christmas in Nursery Rhyme Land is the title of the Christmas production of the Community Theatre. There is a lot of interest in the Pioneer Valley. The local Valley players are presenting Hansel and Gretel Down Under. It is the usual Hansel and Gretel Tale with an "ocker" flavour. The villians are called "Joh and Flo" from which you can draw your own conclusions.

Not content with a hectic 1976, Jack Sturgeon is already planning the production of "Funny Girl" to be presented by Mackay Musical Comedy Players. Auditions are scheduled for February.

See you there .....

Mame

A basic aim in the formation of Kudos was to involve all members in as many aspects of the group and the theatre as possible. This has been very largely achieved.

Our first production was a financial and audience success. We entered three one act plays in the Eisteddfod which very few people saw but never the less received good praise.

'The Glass Menagerie' is our first major serious play and so is a very significant step in our development.

The future promises to be just as exciting with plans for our Theatre Restaurant production of "Kiss Me Shillaleigh" well under way.

Kudos is not just a collection of amateur actors. It is a group of people who cover all aspects of theatrical presentation who don't mind being called upon to work and enjoy themselves at the same time.

If you are interested why not come along? We meet on the third Thursday of the month at the Central School gymnasium at about 7.45 p.m. Sharyn Stellar (Phone 578367), will happily give you any further information.
