President's Message

Maureen Coleman

Firstly our thanks to the Entertainment Centre for inviting us back for our third year in "The Space".

We hope you enjoy this evenings performance of "The Odd Couple" We have such fun again in presenting this for you and I thank everyone involved for their commitment yet again to this production.

Some of you may have not visited us at our Shakespeare St. Theatre yet, so I would like to invite you along to our last production for 1996 "My Three Angels" which will open on November 29th and continue until December 7th. A comedy set in the tropics at Christmas, so very appropriate for the time of year. I look forward to seeing you then.

Director

Heather MacFawish

It has been a sheer pleasure working with the cast and crew of "The Odd Couple", and, with the customary avalanche of hilarity from the pen of Neil Simon. He is a funny man.

Our title duo tonight, Bronwyn Rees and Maureen Coleman are delightful characters, as are "the girls", you will enjoy them. The two classy Spanish guys who come to call are a joy to experience.

Thanks gang and buenas tardes!

A little about Neil Simon

Neil Simon began his writing career in television and established himself as America's leading writer of comedy by creating a succession of Broadway hits, including "Come Blow Your Horn", "Barefoot in the Park", "The Odd Couple", "Sweet Charity", "Plaza Suite", "Last of the Red Hot Lovers", "Promises, Promises", "The Sunshine Boys", and "Biloxi Blues".

Neil Simon has also adapted many of his plays for the screen. The female version of his play "The Odd Couple" was first presented in the Broadway 1970 -1971 season with Sally Struthers and Rita Moreno as the title duo.

If you have enjoyed tonight's performance and would like to become involved in any aspect of our theatre life, feel free to speak to any of our cast or crew for details.
